World Poetry Day

Theme of the Event:

Practiced throughout history – in every culture and on every continent – Poetry speaks to our common humanity and our shared values, transforming the simplest of poems into a powerful catalyst for dialogue and peace. Poetry is a form of art and literature that brings out a beautiful amalgamation of culture, history, and study. World Poetry Day is celebrated every year on March 21 in order to honour the poets to continue to instill the tradition in newer generations. The day celebrates poetry, recitals, music, and other forms of cultural entertainment including theatre, dance, painting, and writing.

World Poetry Day was adopted by UNESCO (United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization) during the 30th General Conference in Paris in the year 1999. UNESCO's aim behind celebrating the day is to support linguistic diversity through poetry. Poetic expressions allow us to promote and spread teachings from different languages. The approach is to preserve endangered languages and make more people aware of treasured forms of cultural and linguistic poetic expressions.

World Poetry Day is organized by the Department of English in Class rooms and the seminar hall to create awareness about the significance of Poetry in enriching the cultures of different countries in the world. The faculty of the English department namely, Dr. V Radha Devi. Dr. K Kishore Varma and Mr. G. Srinivas Kumar have spoken about the great literary works of famous poets of the world.

Dasara (Ayudha Pooja) Celebrations

(01-10-2022)

Theme of the Event:

On the final day, the idols are immersed in rivers or other water bodies as part of the Visarjan ceremony. Dasara is a time for cultural festivities, including classical music and dance performances. Various competitions, exhibitions, and fairs are organized, showcasing traditional arts, crafts, and regional delicacies. Like most Indian festivals, Dasara is a time for feasting and exchanging gifts with family, friends, and neighbors. Special traditional dishes and sweets are prepared, and people come together to celebrate and share the joy of the festival..

About the Event:

In India, 5th September is celebrated as Teachers' Day as a mark of tribute to the contribution made by teachers to the society. 05th September is the birthday of a great teacher Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, a staunch believer of education and a well-known diplomat, visionary, statesman, scholar, President of India and above all a perfect Teacher. In 1962, when Dr. Radhakrishnan became the President of India, he was approached with a request of celebrating his birthday. He said, "Instead of celebrating my birthday, it would be my proud privilege if this day is observed as Teachers' Day". This showed his love for the teaching profession. From then onwards, this day is celebrated as Teachers' Day in India.

Teachers mould the lives of the students by guiding them, by enriching their personalities, by imparting ethical and moral values and have more influence on them. Teacher's Day is celebrated with great enthusiasm in many parts of the world. This day is dedicated to the teachers with the sense of respect, appreciation, encouragement and support for their devotion to their students. REPORT ON TEACHERS DAY CELEBRATION.

About the Event

Ganesh Chaturthi is a vibrant and widely celebrated Hindu festival dedicated to Lord Ganesha, the deity known for wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune. It usually falls in the Hindu month of Bhadra (mid-August to mid-September) and lasts for around 10 days, with the biggest celebrations occurring in Maharashtra, India.

The festival marks the birthday of Lord Ganesha, the son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati, and is observed with immense joy and fervor. Homes and public places are adorned with colorful decorations, and clay idols of Lord Ganesha, varying in size, are installed in beautifully decorated pandals (temporary shrines).

The celebrations commence with the installation of the Ganesha idols amidst chants, prayers, and devotional songs. Over the following days, devotees offer modak (a sweet delicacy), fruits, flowers, and other favorite foods of Lord Ganesha as a part of the rituals. Various cultural events, music, and dance performances are organized during this period, adding to the festive spirit.

On the last day, the idols are taken out in grand processions with much fanfare and immersed in water bodies, symbolizing the cycle of creation and dissolution. This ritual is called Ganpati Visarjan and is accompanied by energetic dancing, singing, and chanting.

Ganesh Chaturthi is not just a religious festival but also a celebration of community, togetherness, and cultural richness. It brings people from all walks of life together to rejoice in the spirit of unity and devotion towards Lord Ganesha.

Theme of the Event:

Ugadi marks the beginning of a new year according to the lunisolar Hindu calendar, typically falling in the months of March or April. The term "Ugadi" is derived from the Sanskrit words "Yuga" meaning age or era, and "Adi" meaning the beginning, signifying the commencement of a new era.

The celebrations of Ugadi hold great importance for several reasons:

New Year's Day: Ugadi is considered the New Year's Day for people in the mentioned regions. It represents a fresh start, symbolizing the transition from the old year to the new one. It is a time for new beginnings, hopes, and aspirations.

Astronomical Significance: Ugadi is celebrated based on the lunisolar calendar, which takes into account the positions of the sun and the moon. The festival aligns with the spring equinox, marking the end of the winter season and the beginning of spring. It holds astronomical and agricultural significance, as it is associated with the cycle of seasons and the harvest.

Cultural and Social Importance: Ugadi is deeply rooted in the cultural fabric of the communities that celebrate it. People engage in various traditional practices and customs on this day. They decorate their homes, wear new clothes, and offer prayers to deities. Families come together to perform religious rituals and seek blessings for the upcoming year. It is a time of unity, togetherness, and strengthening social bonds.

Traditional Food: Special dishes and delicacies are prepared during Ugadi to mark the festive occasion. One of the most important dishes is "Ugadi Pachadi," a unique mixture of six tastes - sweet, sour, salty, bitter, spicy, and tangy. The Pachadi symbolizes the different experiences one may encounter in life and teaches the significance of accepting them with equanimity.

Predictions and Forecasts: Ugadi is also associated with the reading of the "Panchangam" or almanac. Pundits or astrologers make predictions and forecasts for the upcoming year based on the positioning of celestial bodies. People consult the Panchangam to plan their future endeavors, make important decisions, and understand what the year may hold for them.

About the Event

Ganesh Chaturthi is a vibrant and widely celebrated Hindu festival dedicated to Lord Ganesha, the deity known for wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune. It usually falls in the Hindu month of Bhadra (mid-August to mid-September) and lasts for around 10 days, with the biggest celebrations occurring in Maharashtra, India.

The festival marks the birthday of Lord Ganesha, the son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati, and is observed with immense joy and fervor. Homes and public places are adorned with colorful decorations, and clay idols of Lord Ganesha, varying in size, are installed in beautifully decorated pandals (temporary shrines).

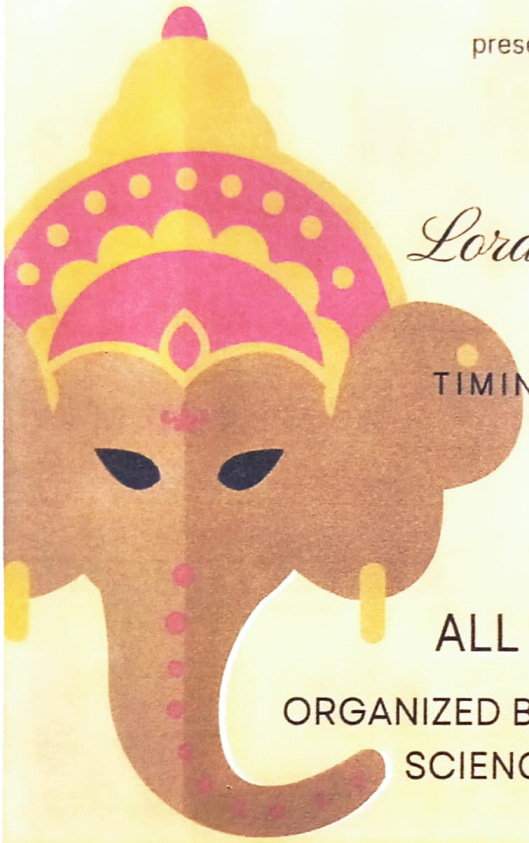

The celebrations commence with the installation of the Ganesha idols amidst chants, prayers, and devotional songs. Over the following days, devotees offer modak (a sweet delicacy), fruits, flowers, and other favorite foods of Lord Ganesha as a part of the rituals. Various cultural events, music, and dance performances are organized during this period, adding to the festive spirit.

On the last day, the idols are taken out in grand processions with much fanfare and immersed in water bodies, symbolizing the cycle of creation and dissolution. This ritual is called Ganpati Visarjan and is accompanied by energetic dancing, singing, and chanting.

Ganesh Chaturthi is not just a religious festival but also a celebration of community, togetherness, and cultural richness. It brings people from all walks of life together to rejoice in the spirit of unity and devotion towards Lord Ganesha.
